MINERS' DEMAND MET COAL STRIKE IS OVER

Pittston, Pa., Oct. 8.—Eight thousand miners, employed by the Pennsylvania Coal Company and the Hillside Coal Company, will return to work tomorrow morning after a strike which began July 16 and which has tied up completely the collieries of the two companies since then.

James A. Joyce, Pittston business man and head of the Chamber of Commerce committee, working to settle the prolonged strike, was the chief figure in ending the walkout.

Unable to bring Capt. W. A. Day, president of the coal companies, and the miners together, Mr. Joyce went to New York yesterday, sought out the principal stockholder of the Pennsylvania Coal Company, and reached an agreement to abolish the individual contractor system and to recognize the miners' grievance committee.

Turning home today, Mr. Joyce held a conference with Captain Day and he formally agreed to the miners' demands.

A meeting of the miners' delegates followed, at which it was voted unanimously to return tomorrow.

PLATFORM FALLS*COX INJURED

Bowling Green, Ky., Oct. 8.—Governor Cox apparently leads a charmed life. He had another narrow escape here yesterday when the stand on

W. H. MORSE, of Seattle, Wash., who says he can now turn out as much work as he could thirty years ago, in spite of his age. Gives Tanlac credit for his splendid health.

"I am in my eighty-fifth year, but since taking Tanlac I am as hale and hearty as I ever was and can do as much work as I could thirty years ago," declared W. H. Morse, of 52 Blaine St., Seattle, Wash. Although in his eighty-fifth year, Mr. Morse is still daily to be found engaged in hard work down at the Ames Shipyard and is remarkably well preserved for his years.

"Last spring I had an attack of the flu that left me in a very badly run-down condition and so weak that I could hardly get around. For a long while I had a very bad cold that I couldn't shake off and my bronchial tubes were so choked up that I was coughing all the time. I had no appetite and in fact ate so little that I was steadily losing weight. I couldn't sleep at nights and became very much worried about my condition, because I couldn't find anything to straighten me up and restore my lost strength.

"I saw by the papers what fine work Tanlac was doing for other folks, so I got some for myself. It did me good right from the start, for in a very short while my cough left me, and I was eating fine and sure did enjoy every mouthful. I slept better at nights and was soon feeling much better in every way. I have gained seven pounds in weight and am so much stronger that I can turn out about as much work as most any other man, in spite of my years. Tanlac certainly must be a great medicine to put me on my feet like it has, and I'm glad of the chance to tell everybody about it."

Tanlac is sold in Alexandria by Edgar Warfield, Jr., and Gibson's Drug Store.

DAYLIGHT SAVING LEADS*TO SUIT FOR DIVORCE

Chicago, Oct. 8.—Daylight-saving time figured as a provocation for married troubles in court today. Frank Shaw swore his wife, Bettie, refused to recognize the new time and get up. He had to do without breakfast.

Then he left home and lived where he could get something to eat in the morning. He asked for divorce.

EMPEROR'S LAST VOYAGE

New York, Oct. 8.—The former German passenger liner Emperor, next to the Leythian the largest ship afloat, and for the past year running in the service of the Cunard Line, left today on what may be her last voyage in that service. The Emperor was taken over by the interallied maritime council at Hamburg following the signing of the armistice. With other ships she was assigned to the British Ministry of Shipping and then loaned to the United States to transport home American troops. When this work was completed she was allocated by Great Britain to the Cunard

Line for seven round trip voyages.

Officials here of the Cunard Line said today that the arrival of the Emperor in England on her present trip will end the term of allocation.

Another former German vessel turned over to the Cunard Line at the same time as the Emperor is the Kaiserin Auguste Victoria. This ship will leave here Saturday on the last leg of her final trip under the existing contract. The future of both ships is unknown here.

SHOOTS SON BY MISTAKE

Chester, Pa., Oct. 8.—Edwin T. Seibert, 14 years old, of Carpenter, Del., is in the Chester Hospital with a bullet wound in the abdomen and his condition is considered serious. The boy was accidentally shot by his mother in mistake for a burglar, according to his father, E. T. Seibert, who is freight chief in this city for the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad.

The boy and his father had attended a church service last night and when they returned home the boy unlocked the door. He called to his mother, who had retired, and told her he believed there was an intruder on the first floor. He hurried to get a revolver and Mrs. Seibert did likewise, and it was in the excitement that followed that the boy was shot. No trace of any burglar could be found and Seibert brought his son to the hospital in the family car. The mother collapsed, but her condition has since improved.

Wilson To Let Voters Pass on His Verdict.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 7.—President Wilson yesterday telegraphed Senator Spencer, Republican, Missouri, that he was content to let the voters of Missouri decide which of them was telling the truth. The telegram referred to Senator Spencer's charges that the President had promised military aid to Rumania and Serbia, which the President Tuesday said was "false."

The telegram, which was made public at the White House without comment or explanation, follows: "I am perfectly content to leave it to the voters of Missouri to determine who of us is telling the truth."

Replying to the President's letter of Tuesday, Senator Spencer in a letter quoted, in support of his original statement, from what he said was the stenographic notes of the eighth plenary session of the peace conference. He asked the President to inform him whether the statement as attributed to him in the stenographic notes taken at Paris was made. The President's telegram yesterday apparently was in reply to that letter.
